ADJECTIVES AND ADVERBS

Correct the modification problems in the following sentences.

1. Despite the Spanish omelet tasting well, the restaurant reviewer refused to give the brand new diner more than two and one half stars.

2. Walking careful and slow, the hikers crossed the creek on an old shipping pallet.

3. The young labrador retriever bounded into the playroom, tracking water across the hard waxed floor.

4. The land-use committee was outraged when the environmental expert proclaimed the project a failure.

5. We read the instructions as quick as we could, but still assembled the ping-pong table several minutes after the scheduled family tournament.